IS THIS IS FOR AN ADULT FAMILY HOME INSPECTION? YES NO

INSPECTION FEES shall be paid in conformance with those listed in Tacoma Municipal Code 2.09.

If, in the course of the inspection, deficiencies are noted which in the opinion of the inspector constitutes a hazard to live and limb, Planning and Development Services will order such action as may be necessary to eliminate the hazard. Such actions may take either of the following forms:

1. Correction of the deficiency within an allotted time. This may require separate permit submittal with plans, staff plan review, and inspections to verify work per plans.
2. An order to vacate the building if the hazard is extreme in nature.

The applicant of the inspection must also realize that Planning and Development Services will endeavor to disclose code deficiencies and violations, but cannot guarantee that other discrepancies may not be disclosed later. This is especially true where remodeling or renovations are contemplated.

I, the applicant of the requested inspection, have read, understand, and agree to the conditions of the building inspection and either own the building or have the authority to obligate the owner of the building to conform to these conditions.
